OSCAR SHUMSKY made his debut with Leopold Stokowski and the Philadelphia Orchestra at the age of eight. He received his musical education at the Curtis Institute under the guidance of Leopold Auer and Efrem Zimbalist. He has been a member of the faculties of the Curtis and Juilliard Schools of Music and now teaches at Yale University. He has conducted many leading ensembles in the U.S. and Canada and was for many years music director of the Canadian Stratford Festival. He has appeared as recital soloist in many countries and was recognized in 1962 with the Ford Foundation grant, awarded to outstanding violinists. The late Russian violinist, David Oistrakh, called him "one of America's greatest violinists". Recent recordings include the entire cycle of Mozart's Violin and Piano Sonatas, Bach's Solo Sonatas and Partitas and Mr. Shumsky is presently at work recording the complete violin repertoire (over 100 works) of Fritz Kreisler with the Musical Heritage Society. The Orchestral Training Program is honoured to welcome Mr. Shumsky to Toronto, his second appearance with the Program.
